

SUNNY MITCHELL

Sunny Mitchell is a director, choreographer, instructor, vocalist, musician, and entertainment developer. Her career has included many principal and solo roles during her tenure with Sacramento Ballet and Broadway Sacramento. Sunny holds a BFA in choreography from UC Irvine and an MA in Education from CSU Sacramento. Founding director of Sunny Mitchell Theatre Projects (SMTP), a platform for developing theatrical works that are alive, creative, and imaginative, Ms. Mitchell is also currently adjunct faculty at Folsom Lake College. Sunny is a vocalist, guitarist and manager for The Wildwood Roses, the only ever Carter Sisters tribute band. Ms. Mitchell received funding to create residencies for such esteemed artists as WS Holland, Lorrie Carter Bennett, Ronnie Williams, and Vicki Langdon. Sunny's most recent endeavors involve producing, directing and performing in large music concerts celebrating country roots music. Her efforts have garnered the City of Folsom's Arts Achievement Award and she was selected to present about "Country Music in the Classroom" at the 2019 Johnny Cash Heritage Festival. An arts educator for the course of her career in the arts, this newest venture into running a nonprofit foundation for the arts continues the unbroken circle and she is incredibly thankful to be surrounded by loving family, friends and talented individuals sharing the dream of highlighting our vast tapestry of American history through the performing arts.
